

Book Submissions

Web of Life Children's Books only publishes children's picture books. We specialize in quality picture books about nature and the environment. We publish books that are nonfiction, creative nonfiction or realistic fiction. Prior to submission, if you are not familiar with Web of Life Children's Books, please invest some time on our website to determine if we are the appropriate publisher for your work. If we are interested in your manuscript, we will respond within four months of receiving it.

Manuscript Submission Process

- We only accept submissions by email. Your manuscript should be attached as a Word file or PDF. Please submit the entire manuscript via email to info@weboflifebooks.com.
- Please put the manuscript title and "manuscript submission" in the subject line.
- Manuscript should be double-spaced and paginated. Story should be 32 pages (including title page, copyright page and possible back matter) and be no more than 1,000 words (stories including back matter may be longer).
- Stories should be for children ages 3-8 or 6-10.
- Please include a short biography. Tell us what other books, if any, you have published. Let us know about any applicable awards you have won.
- Include a paragraph explaining why you wrote the manuscript; tell us about any competition (author/illustrator, publisher, year published, etc.). If there are competitive books, please explain why your book is different from the ones already published.
- How do you envision the marketing of your book?
- Only one submission per email. Include your bio with each submission.
- Please include a bibliography to indicate research on the underlying science concept(s) of the story. The underlying scientific facts must be accurate.
- Authors do not need to submit art. However, if you have illustrations or photographs you would like to include with your submission, you may email PDFs.

Illustration Submission Process

We are looking for realistic-style illustrations for children.

- Please provide a link to your website. You may attach one or two illustrations. We will contact you if we need further information or samples.
- Send PDFs to info@weboflifebooks.com.
- Please put "Illustration Submission" in the subject line.

- Include a short biography with information on your preferred art style (water color, digital, a combination, etc.).

By agreeing to review a submission, we do not assume any obligation to refrain from publishing a book based on a similar idea, concept, or story.

Thank you for your interest in Web of Life Children's Books.
